Holocaust: It is very problematic when so many laws are needed to protect it!

Published on 2026-11-23 by Henning von Stosch

It has long been written here on the blog: The researchers who deal with the alleged mass gassings of Jews in the Third Reich would have been very ashamed of their stupidity if their questions could have been answered!

  - Instead of helping these people get their questions answered, they were persecuted and convicted!
  - WOW, THAT'S WEAK!
  - This behavior is almost tantamount to an admission that the mass gassings could not have taken place!

Why has no one come up with this simple solution to the riddle?

I know the answer: The time simply wasn't right!

Now please take a look at the following video. I came across it on archive.org:

  - Title: Gilad Atzmon – Holocaust of Truth FULL Interview – windowsontheworld.net
  - URL: https://archive.org/details/holocaust-of-truth-gilad-atzmon-full-interview-windowsontheworld

The original video is still available on YouTube. Here's an excerpt that starts at approximately 45:30 minutes:

Title: The Holocaust of Truth by Gilad Atzmon
URL: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=46h_nP_vcQ4
The statement that's important to me ends at approximately 46:58 minutes. However, it's worth watching the entire video!
What's important:

  - Mr. Atzmon does not know the truth, but considers himself a useful truth seeker.
  - In Mr. Atzmon's opinion/experience, the truth will always prevail! This happens against all obstacles.
  - That's why the lobby is so afraid! (Referring to the Holocaust lobby)
  - There's something being hidden! There simply has to be something being hidden about the Holocaust, because there are just too many laws protecting the Holocaust!

- Mr. Atzmon has no knowledge of what is being hidden. He is neither a historian nor does he have sufficient knowledge of German.
- Therefore, he cannot get involved in historical research.
- If the past is not "accessible" due to laws, then we have good reason to assume that something is wrong!
- That's why Mr. Atzmon is listening carefully, because it's his past.

Mr. Atzmon then questions the purpose of the Allied area bombing campaigns of World War II, in which entire cities in Germany were "wiped out"!
The interview also reveals that, in Mr. Atzmon's experience, everyone has something to hide. Mr. Atzmon doesn't seem to be exempt from this!

Mr. Atzmon and the interviewer have already been heavily criticized.

- That's really no surprise!
- The Holocaust is about a lot of money and even more influence!

I, Henning von Stosch, am also certain: The Holocaust was intended to be the weapon with which the German people were finally to be deprived of the ability to find the courage required to confront "Satan himself"!

- Remember the old saying: "We Germans fear God and nothing else in the world!"
- For myself, I would like to add to/modify the saying: A god that one must fear is not a god to me!
- One may only "fear" a god if one has deliberately violated his laws!
    - These laws must then correspond to the realities of life and not be as childish as Christianity prescribes!
    - Christianity has long been divided into established churches, which primarily seek to maintain their power, and where the salvation of the faithful may still play a role for some priests!

If you want to know what's going on in the Catholic Church (the Protestants aren't any better), then read Malachi Martin's book "The Last Pope," from which you can find some interesting excerpts here:

A second delightful description of the state of the churches comes from Erich Bromme (page 23). The centuries of lies have had consequences within the church. These are described as follows:

- "Today, an irreconcilable division exists within the Church's faithful, or—as the Catholic Church has ostentatiously and arrogantly declared since the beginning of the Second Vatican Council in 1962—within the 'new People of God.' The relatively few knowledgeable theologians are opposed by the vast majority of authority-obsessed 'believers.' They must remain silent if they do not want to jeopardize their position of > power and save faith and the Church from a rapid and catastrophic collapse." The continued existence of the clergy's position in public life, which was salvaged from a completely different, more primitive era and is therefore anachronistic, as well as the influence and political power of the churches, now depends solely and exclusively on how long it will still be possible, with the use of increasingly numerous, differentiated, and elaborate means of influence and advertising, to conceal or hide this gap between scientifically grounded truth and the commonly held "truth of faith" of early history, the nature of which does not need to be specifically characterized." (End of quote).

Erich Bromme seems not to have found the solution that can be found here: https://sonnenspiegel.eu/?p=6828&preview=true There are windows of opportunity! This is not meant as criticism of his work.

Those scumbags in Judaism simply haven't grasped that those declared dead often live longer! Just how stupid these guys really are is evident in the fact that they actually wanted to compare Leslie Bory's public impact with the impact of his speech at the Sportpalast on February 18, 1943, as I've ridiculed here:

Title: Do you know Leslie Bory?

The damage is beyond description!
